Henry Bunz, the twelve-year-old boy who drove over Mary Ann Newman, a fouryear-old child at One Hundred and Fortyfourth street and College avenue, Monday evening, was yesterday held to answer in $1,000 ball by Magistrate Meade, in Morrisania Court. He was placed in the charge of the Gerry society.

Nicholas Kern, grocer, No. 2719 Third avenue, whose wagon young Bunz was driving when he ran over the little girl, did all in his power to suppress any and all information about the case.

Young Bunz has been practically in the employ of Kern for some time, but the grocer denies this, and says the boy used to simply hang about his store. Kern is

The fact that it was not being who is herself music's soul and god-September 15. The fact that it was not promptly "shot," as usual, was construed as a bull argument. The brokers were so busy either endeavoring to grasp prosperity or avoid the avalanche of adversity that straw hats were forgetten. A score or so of them braved the floor of the Exchange, and for the first time in a quarter of a century not one was molested.
